

Your Complete Kreem Veda Bracelet Guide

Learn how to wear, cleanse, energize, and care for your bracelet the right way.

Thank you for choosing the Kreem Veda Rudraksha Bracelet.

Rudraksha is known as one of the most revered spiritual beads, treasured for centuries for its sacred significance. It is commonly associated with peace, protection, resilience, and spiritual wisdom. More than an ornament, your bracelet is a symbol of your intention to embrace a life of balance, positivity, and inner peace.

Wear it with faith, positive thoughts, and a clear intention.

Best Day to Start Wearing

You may start wearing your Rudraksha Bracelet on Monday, which is traditionally associated with Lord Shiva.

If Monday is not convenient, you may begin wearing it on any day with a positive mindset and sincere intention.

Which Hand Should You Wear It On?

Left Hand

- Receive positive energy
- Feel calm and balanced
- Support meditation and spiritual growth
- Strengthen inner peace

Right Hand

- Express confidence
- Stay focused on your goals
- Take positive action
- Carry your intentions into daily life

Choose the hand that feels most comfortable and matches your personal intention.

Set Your Personal Intention

Before wearing your bracelet for the first time, hold it in your hands for a few moments.

Take a deep breath and silently set a positive intention, such as:

"May I stay peaceful, protected, focused, and guided on the right path."

A clear intention helps you wear your bracelet with mindfulness and purpose.

How to Recharge Your Bracelet

Caring for your bracelet helps keep it meaningful throughout your spiritual journey.

Simple Charging Steps

You may refresh your bracelet's spiritual significance by following these simple steps:

- Keep it in a clean and respectful place when not wearing it.
- Sit quietly while holding the bracelet and offer a short prayer or positive affirmation.
- You may chant "Om Namah Shivaya" 11 or 108 times while holding it.
- Wear it again with gratitude and positive thoughts.

Things to Avoid

To keep your bracelet in good condition:

- Avoid exposing it to perfumes or harsh chemicals.
- Remove it before swimming or using strong cleaning products.
- Keep it away from excessive moisture for long periods.
- Store it safely when not in use.
- Treat it with respect and avoid throwing or dropping it carelessly.
